4. CONTENTIONS OF THE PARTIES:

(a) The Plaintiff(s):

(b) The Defendant(s):

The Defendants, First United Methodist Church and Darlene Maye, contend that the Plaintiff's claim alleging racial and gender discrimination pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Thirteenth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, 42 U.S.C. § 1981, 1983 and 1985, and the Equal Pay Act of 1963, are unfounded as there is no evidence that Ms. Perryman has been discriminated against based on her being a black female. Moreover, the Defendants contend that Plaintiff's action against these Defendants is barred by application of the ministerial exception to Title VII.

The evidence now before the Court shows unequivocally that as a religious instructor within First United Methodist Church's Early Childhood Development (ECDC) Program, the Plaintiff was involved in teaching religious doctrine in the furtherance of spreading religious ritual and worship. As a result, she is barred from bringing discrimination claims against the Defendants pursuant to Title VII.

Moreover, the Plaintiff cannot establish a claim of sex or race discrimination. All of the Plaintiff's claims against the Defendants arise pursuant to her allegation that she was discriminated against based on her gender (female) and race (black). However, in each instance of alleged discrimination, Plaintiff either admits that she has no basis for her claim or that there were no ECDC employees outside of her classification that received preferential treatment. The Defendants further adopt as their contentions all arguments currently pending before the Court and incorporated with Defendants' Motion for Summary Judgment.

5. STIPULATIONS BY AND BETWEEN THE PARTIES:
